

Parent Permission & Financial Responsibility Form

Read, Sign & Return to Troop Leader/Troop Fall Product Manager

As a parent/guardian of Girl Scout participating in the 2023 Girl Scout Fall Product Program, I agree to:

- Be honest and fair: Please adhere to program dates: Sale begins, October 1, 2023 and ends In-Person on October 29, 2023.
- Give my daughter proper supervision and adult guidance throughout the program and assist her in making prompt delivery of nuts and candies to her customers.
- Be responsible for all Fall Product received and all money collected. I also understand that product cannot be returned and that I am financially responsible for all product taken on behalf of my Girl Scout.
- Get signed receipts for all product received and all money turned into troop leader/troop fall product manager.
- Turn in money collected from customers to the troop leader/troop fall product manager by the set deadline.
- Always get a receipt for money turned in to the troop. This is your proof of payment should there be a dispute with the troop leader/cookie manager.
- Do not hold large amounts of money. If lost or stolen, I understand I am responsible for replacement of the money.
- Contact my troop leader/fall product manager by the specified time to pick up my Girl Scout's earned rewards.

Note: The council will make no adjustments/exchanges to rewards after November 29, 2023.

- I acknowledge that Girl Scouts of Greater South Texas (GSGST) offers no warranty for any girl rewards received beyond the manufacturer's warranty.
- Abide by all deadlines and guidelines set forth by the troop leader/fall product manager and program materials that I receive on behalf of GSGST.
- I further understand if I fail to pay the troop for Girl Scout Fall Product that have been given to my Girl Scout and myself, the girl rewards that have been earned will be withheld until amount due is paid in full AND I will be submitted to collections which may result in the submission of my name to a collection agency and/or appearance in small claims court.

My daughter _____ a member of Troop _____, has my permission to participate in the 2023 Girl Scout Fall Product Program. I agree to turn in all money to the troop leader/troop fall product manager by the designated troop deadline. I am responsible for obtaining and keeping a receipt for the money I turn into the troop leader/troop fall product manager. I understand that failure to pay for all product received will result in the submission of my name to collections. All fees charged in conjunction with this process will be my responsibility, including but not limited to attorney fees, court costs and collection fees.
